Chapter 1 by Story Wars

"Potter, Lupin." James and Lupin looked up to see Sirius standing next to the common room door with a broomstick in one hand and a wicked grin. " 5 gallons says that you can't catch the snitch in under a minuet." He said, leaning against the doorframe. James pushed away the peice of parchment he had been scratching away at for the better part of an hour. Ancient Runes, by Potter, James was scribbled in the left hand corner. Black ink smudged across his nose and his eyes where red from another late night of homework after detention with Proffesor McGonagall. "Are you barking mad, Sirius?" He asked, getting up and glancing at the clock over the mantelpiece. 1:46 am. Lupin frowned at Sirius, putting down his copy of A Guide For Magical Creatres and Care For The Young Witch Or Wizard by Kindley Stewart "You do realize that we have a final coming up." Said Lupin "Not to mention its going to be a full moon tomorrow night." Siruis laughed and brushed long hair from away from his eyes, " Pity, I've got a bet on with ol' Petigrew saying you would. I guess that's me out of a couple of gallions" James stood for a moment, then dashed upstairs. Coming back with his broom and invisibility cloak. "All right then," he said. "Let's have some fun."
